

2007 PRISM AWARD

Presented by Mental Health America Dallas Chapter

The Lightner Sams Child Advocate Award recognizes outstanding and exemplary dedication and service to the mental health needs of children and adolescents. This award is named for and in honor of the superior support and commitment of Sue and Larry Lightner. Community Council received this award for its 10 year outreach to educate families and enroll eligible children in the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and Children's Medicaid.

2007 LONE STAR SALUTE

Presented by the Volunteer Center of North Texas

At the 2007 Lone Star Salute presented by the Volunteer Center of North Texas, Harry Thompson received recognition for his volunteer leadership in recruiting and displaying the work of local artists as revolving art displays at the Community Council of Greater Dallas offices. These displays not only add artistic dimension and ambiance to the Council's place of business, but also offer the artists a venue where their works (which are for sale) are on public display.

2008 HEALTHY YOUTH FOR A HEALTHY FUTURE CHAMPION AWARD

Presented by the Acting U.S. Surgeon General Steven K. Galson, M.D., M.P.H..

This award was presented to the Dallas Area Coalition to Prevent Childhood Obesity in recognition of this groups work to promote physical activity and fight obesity. Community Council is the co-convenor of this coalition along with Children's Medical Center of Dallas.

2006 MENTOR OF THE YEAR AWARD
Presented by Women of Visionary Influence (WOVI)

Martha T. Blaine was the recipient of the Mentor of the Year Award from WOVI, Inc.

For her work to encourage and motivate other women in the workplace and to measurably impact the growth in the development of women and or the bottom line.

2007 DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVANT AWARD
Presented by the Women's Council of Dallas County

The Women's Council recognized the public service of Martha T. Blaine by awarding her this recognition of her advocacy for children, seniors, the underprivileged, the frail, and on behalf of her work to support working women.

2005, 2006, 2007, 2008 ALFRED P. SLOAN AWARD FOR WORKPLACE FLEXIBILITY AND EFFECTIVENESS
Presented by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and the Greater Dallas Chamber

The Community Council has received this prestigious award four consecutive years, honoring the following flexibility initiatives: flexible hours, compressed work weeks, ability to telecommute, time off to attend to family and personal needs, paid and unpaid time for further education, phased retirement, special efforts to recruit and retain workers over age 50. This award is given to organizations that are dedicated to making work “work: for both the employer and the employees. Representing employers of all sizes and all types, the winners of this prestigious award not only offer excellent workplace flexibility practices, but they also use flexibility as a strategic business tool to enhance organizational effectiveness while also benefiting employees.

2008 UNIVERSOUL AWARD
Presented by the UniverSoul Circus

In recognition for the Community Council of Greater Dallas' commitment to serving the Dallas community as a way of life, CCGD was honored at the February 12th performance of UniverSoul Circus.